BRAD SMITH

General Counsel and Executive Vice President, Legal and Corporate Affairs, Microsoft Corporation

Brad Smith is Microsoft's general counsel and executive vice president, Legal and Corporate Affairs. He leads the company's Department of Legal and Corporate Affairs (LCA), which has approximately 1,100 employees located in 55 countries and is responsible for the company's legal work, its intellectual property portfolio and patent licensing business, and its government affairs and philanthropic work. He also serves as Microsoft's corporate secretary and its chief compliance officer.

Since becoming general counsel in 2002, Smith has overseen numerous negotiations leading to competition law and intellectual property agreements with governments around the world and with companies across the IT sector. Smith has also played a central role in ensuring that Microsoft fulfills its corporate responsibilities. In recent years Microsoft has consistently ranked in the top 2 percent of the S&P 500 for corporate governance scores.

During Smith's tenure, the company's citizenship programs have reached people in 120 countries and advanced opportunities for hundreds of millions of youth around the world through programs like Microsoft YouthSpark, a three-year commitment to empower 300 million youth to change their world by creating education, employment, and entrepreneurship opportunities.

Smith has spearheaded Microsoft's national efforts to encourage reform of the nation's immigration policies and to create greater opportunities for American workers through broader investments in STEM education. In Washington State, Smith has advanced several statewide education initiatives. In 2010 he chaired Governor Christine Gregoire's Higher Education Funding Task Force, and in 2012 he co-chaired the transition team for incoming Governor Jay Inslee. And since 2011, at the appointment of the governor, he has chaired the Washington Opportunity Scholarship Program, the nation's first private-public-funded endowment to enable more students to attend college.

In 2010-11, Smith and his wife, Kathy Surace-Smith, co-chaired the annual campaign for the United Way of King County, the country's largest United Way campaign. Smith currently co-chairs the board of directors of Kids in Need of Defense (KIND) and is the chair-elect of the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity. He has written numerous articles and commentaries. He can be followed at <http://twitter.com/#BradSmi>.
