GREG HARTMAN

*President for External Affairs
Seton Healthcare Family*

Greg Hartman is the President of External Affairs for the Seton Healthcare Family. He has responsibility for communications, marketing, and government affairs for the Seton network, as well as Seton's growing enterprise in academic medicine and research. Prior to this current role, Greg was the President and CEO for Seton's Central Group, which included Seton Medical Center Austin, the University Medical Center Brackenridge, and the Clinical Education Center at Brackenridge.

Greg has been heavily involved for several years in the efforts to create a collaboration among Seton, the University of Texas at Austin, UT Southwestern Medical School in Dallas, the UT System, and Central Health to bring translational medical research and academic medicine to Central Texas, including the new UT Austin medical school and a new teaching hospital.

Before joining Seton, Greg worked around the nation as a consultant for public affairs, communications, marketing, advertising, and strategic planning. He was a Managing Director for Public Strategies, Inc., and previously a Senior Partner with MGT of America, a management consulting and research firm. He served as Executive Assistant and Director of Communications for former Texas State Comptroller John Sharp, and also worked for legislators in both the Texas Senate and House.

Additionally, for nearly two decades, he worked as a strategic consultant for several political campaigns, including campaigns for President, the U.S. Senate and numerous statewide campaigns.
