MANNY FLORES

CEO & Managing Partner

LatinWorks

Manny Flores is Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Austin-based LatinWorks, an award winning advertising agency specializing in cultural branding.

After spending nearly two decades at Anheuser-Busch as Vice President of Marketing Development where he spearheaded breakthrough marketing programs, Manny brings to LatinWorks brand development and segment-marketing expertise. LatinWorks boasts a roster of blue chip clients including Lowe's Home Improvement, Target, Domino's Pizza, Anheuser-Busch, and the Texas Lottery among others. Under his leadership, LatinWorks has been named Agency of the Year by Ad Age three times and recognized as one of the top ten agencies in the country as noted by the Ad Age "A" list. They've also been named small agency of the year by AD Week. Additionally, LatinWorks has been awarded 9 Cannes Lion awards and many national and global accolades for their work. LatinWorks remains the most awarded agency in their class.

In 2013, Manny was appointed to the Department of Public Safety Commission by Governor Rick Perry. He serves the State of Texas as DPS Commissioner and travels across Texas on state business. He is an advisory board member of Helping Hand Home for Children and United Way of Greater Austin. He is also past co-chair of the Greater Austin Hispanic Chamber of Commerce "Celebrando Austin" event and past member of the St. Michael's Academy Board of Trustees.

Manny lives in Austin with his wife Janice and has two daughters, Jessica and Caitlin. He's an avid boater and enjoys hunting and fishing on the Texas Gulf Coast.
