WGUTexas Hires Strategic Partnerships Manager

Michael Glazebrook to lead statewide community relations and business development efforts

AUSTIN — (Mar 27, 2018) Online, nonprofit university WGUTexas has hired Michael Glazebrook to lead the community relations team and statewide strategic partnerships.

“Michael’s extensive experience with higher education, the military and veteran service organizations fits our needs to promote the value of WGUTexas’ educational programs and benefits,” said Dr. Steven Johnson, chancellor of WGUTexas. “He has a track record of successfully leading and coaching large teams and developing long-term partnerships and strategies for new business development.”

Glazebrook will lead the community relations team to develop and grow partnerships with businesses, community colleges and nonprofits, allowing WGUTexas to reach and serve more working adults across the state.

Prior to joining WGUTexas, Glazebrook was the central region manager for military and veteran affairs at the University of Phoenix and was responsible for business development, strategic accounts and operations management. He served as adviser of university policies and procedures for student experience and led training to promote continuing education for working adults. Previously, Glazebrook served in the U.S. Marine Corps, with the rank of sergeant.

Glazebrook earned a B.A. degree in Marketing and B.A. in Business Administration from St. Leo University in Florida, a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Phoenix, and a Master of Management in Human Resources Management from the University of Phoenix.

He was a founding member of the Veteran Employee Resource Group (VERG) at the University of Phoenix. He volunteers as a crew leader for the Mormon Helping Hands community outreach program and is a Scout Leader for the Boy Scouts of America.

About WGUTexas

WGUTexas is an online, nonprofit, competency-based university established to expand Texans’ access to higher education throughout the state. Formed through a partnership between the state of Texas and nationally-recognized Western Governors University, WGUTexas is open to all qualified Texas residents.

The university offers more than 60 undergraduate and graduate degree programs in the high-demand career fields of business, K-12 teacher education, information technology, and health professions, including nursing.

Degrees are granted under the accreditation of Western Governors University, which is accredited through the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU). Teachers College programs are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE), and nursing programs are accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE).*
